Dear OSArs,

Welcome to the first newsletter of the 21st Executive Committee!

“When is InCon, shouldn’t it be in November?”

“No VTS this year? Really? Argh, I really want to join!”

“You will have YS in March? Then you got to start working on it as soon as possible! It needs lots of preparation!”

Perhaps these questions have come up to your mind when you learn about this year’s annual plan. Now, it is the time for me to answer your queries.

Youth Summit, Volunteer Training Scheme and Interflow Camp are the traditional external projects held by OSA every year. Together with the International Convergence introduced by the 19th Executive Committee, the four events have recently become the trademarks of the association. Apart from inheriting the fine tradition, we believe it would be nice if we could infuse novelties into these conventional programmes. Thus, with the support from advisors, we take a bold move and introduce changes into our calendar.

“When is InCon, shouldn’t it be in November?”

Don’t worry, In Con is still here and it will take place in May! As requested by past participants, they would like us to include more countries into the event apart from having Germany, Israel, India... for the third consecutive years. So, in the beginning of our term, we exco decided to add one more country to In Con, and that is.... Japan, the favourite holiday destination for Hong Kong people! Having one more nation in In Con is no easy task, it takes quite some time for PICs to contact related parties. And so, in order to allow more preparation time and coordination with the newly involved parties, we have postponed it to May. Get our next newsletter and to see how’s this year’s the In Con is like!

“No VTS this year? Really? Argh, I really want to join!”

Sorry for inducing panic in potential participants and organizing committee, we are still having VTS and we have combined it with I Camp. Instead of having theme game in I

Camp, we will have service projects as our focus. Not only will participants have fun in this summer camp, they will also be engaging in meaningful social services. How great it sounds to participants, schools and... sponsors!

Having all large scale external projects in the second half of our term, it seems that we have been lazy from August to December. Of course not! In September, we organized the Mid Autumn Service and Gathering; In November, we were invited by RTHK to attend a radio talk show. In December, we had the Future Young Leaders Forum, Christmas Tram Party and Christmas Ball. Continue reading the newsletter and to learn more about the events from PICs! On top of that, we have also created two brand new souvenirs: OSA Towel and OSA T-shirts. Have a look at them at the end of this newsletter, don't hesitate to place your order through our website!

Last few months had not been easy for us, as it takes time for us exco to learn how to cooperate and work with each other. However, the hardest part is yet to come. With the external projects approaching in no time, the following days would be immensely challenging. We will try our best in the coming events and please show us your support by joining our internal gatherings!

Happy Reading!

Greetings everyone! I am Horace Chan of St. Joseph's College. It is my honour and pleasure to be the Vice President of the 21st Executive Committee of the HKOSA.

I was deeply impressed when last year's Exco introduced me to the HKOSA right after the interview of the Outstanding Students selection process. Exuberant and uncertain at that time, I was too nervous to ask any question but thrilled to be a member of such a distinguished organization. Weeks later when I participated in the Orientation Day, I met my fellow OSArS, who were the most intelligent students in HK, I was surprised at how friendly they were and I understood I needed not be anxious about the association. It was the moment when I truly realized there was no other association as friendly and professional as OSA; when I decided to devote my summer vacation into it; when I decided to participate in most of the activities organized by it.

I remembered vividly the days I spent in OSA after CE – Social Services Projects, Inter-flow Camp, Annual Dinner - these were euphoric scenes stored deep in my heart. I have never spent such a fruitful summer vacation. OSA is indeed a second family to us and I could still recall the day before the release of CE result when we fellow OSArS were chatting in McDonalds. OSA changed me a lot and in return, I hope to contribute to it and at the same time find everlasting relationship. That's why I am here to work for OSA.

Five months have passed since our inauguration and it wasn't easy. I began to check mailbox everyday, deleting hundreds of spams. I began to have phone conferencing every night, discussing urgent and important issues. I began to work every night, sleeping for only a few hours a day. Every day, decisions were made and challenges suddenly popped up. Yet, I very much enjoyed it.

Many of my friends had asked me, "Is it worthwhile to devote that much into OSA?" Sometimes when I was in hardship, this question appeared in my mind. Is it worthwhile to sacrifice most of my sleeping hours? Is it worthwhile to be caught sleeping and daydreaming in class? Is it worthwhile to give up developing my other interests? The answer is defi nately “yes”. I am proud to have organized unique functions for HK students and the experience I gained is invaluable. What’s more OSA allows me to forge long-term friendships, to realize my potentials and to build up my strengths in serving the community.

Half of our ExCo life has passed. I would like to thank the Executive Committee for their hard work and devotion. THANK YOU for being understanding and supporting, especially in times of sorrow. THANKS Stephanie for your tolerance. I would also like to express my heartfelt gratitude to those who taught me and supported me from the beginning when I was an OSAr –advisors, 20th Executive Committee, 21st and 22nd OSArS. You have made me grow.

Let us continue to work hard in the second half of the year – to exert effort, creativity and imagination into the three projects ahead!

CHOW, Elaine (2108)
Internal Secretary

Elaine

Hi Everyone! I am Elaine, a Form Six student from St. Paul’s Convent School. Undoubtedly, the past three months has been a hectic but challenging time for me. I finally realize how “honeymoon” my Form Five year has been, not being required to care about any club work or project stuff, but only indulging in books.

Having “OSA ExCo” as one of my titles makes me run out of breath at a lot of times, but it also adds spices to my life and makes me grow up by giving me plenty of first-hand experiences. Everything has been like a dream since I became an ExCo member in August. Very different from the other ExCo candidates, I had never thought of running for ExCo when I attended the AGM on 11th August. My intention at that time was just to give support to my fellow friends who were running for ExCo. When the session for the election of new ExCo members began, someone nominated me! I was totally confused because I was not psychologically prepared for this. Therefore, I declined the nomination. Then Felix announced that there would be a two-min “persuading period”. All my friends gathered around me and urged me to run for ExCo. Sweet memories I had in OSA flashed across my mind, and I thought it may be the time for me to contribute. And that’s why I finally delivered my “impromptu” election speech, and became an ExCo!

Well, after three months of being the Internal Secretary, I discovered that the most important quality of the secretary is neither high writing speed nor good memory, but great concentrating power! Other ExCos can dream or rest when they are not reporting but the Internal Secretary must stay alert all the time. It may not sound difficult to you but it is particularly hard for someone like me who daydreams during school lessons all the time!

This year, I will chair the International Convergence with Joane and Valdace, and the Christmas Ball with Horace and Joane. We will strive for the best and bring you all the most innovative and glamorous projects ever! Stay tune for surprises brought to you by the 21st Executive Committee!

LAU, Paloma (2124)
External Secretary

Greetings! I am Paloma Lau, a Form 6 student at St. Paul's Convent School. To be able to serve today as the External Secretary of the 21st Executive committee is an immense honour. I would like to take the opportunity to thank all my fellow OSAs and also advisors for allowing me the chance to dedicate myself to serve the association this year.

Time has flown by at the blink of an eye; I have already passed two months of my exco life. Being an exco is definitely an extraordinary experience. For starters, I managed not to fall asleep when talking to my fellow excos on the phone at 2 a.m. I learnt how to doze off in class without my teacher noticing. I now have the privilege of having a super expensive phone bill without my mom nagging about it.

On a more serious note, I have to admit the job of an external secretary is not as easy as I thought. My first job of the year: the friendly packs. Apart from standardizing over 200 letters, my job is also to assemble various documents into the big envelopes, which is similar to working in a factory assembly line. Then comes the final step in which I have to take the envelopes to a nearby post office. Mind you, the 200 something friendly packs amount to 5 bulky bags. The officer at the counter was staring at me wide-eyed like I have three heads. At this point, I would like to thank Horace (2202) for his constant proof reading job, ensuring that my letters are mistakes-free.

As the year unfolds, we, the 21st Executive Committee will strive hard to live up to our theme "Observe the Obscured, Strive for Success, Act to Accomplish". This road will not be an easy one, devoid of obstacles, but I believe that with the support of fellow OSAr, this coming year will surely be as fruitful and exciting as it can ever be!

TSE, Ivy (2233)
Financial Secretary

As I skim through the list of past twenty Executive Committees, I am surprised to know that I am the first DGS "Finsec" in history! HAHA!

So, Greetings from Ivy Tse! I'm currently a Form Six student at Diocesan Girls' School and am serving the Association as the financial secretary in the 21st Executive Committee.

I still remember last April, just before the haunting CEs, I was lured into a room where 5 suit-wearing, professional-looking people baited my $100 for a membership in the Hong Kong Outstanding Students' Association.

Outstanding Student. What a boasting title. $100. What a nice bargain. Those were the only things that came across my mind back then.

Soon I found that it is more than just a name, but a professional group of bright minds and diverse talents. Having literally nothing to do after the CEs, I signed up to be an OC of Bridge Builders, I-camp, Annual Dinner, and supported the Association in ALL its events. The sleepless chats in I-camp are something that I will never forget. The friendship evolved will be treasured forever.

I'd only made my decision after 8/8, the fateful day. Idiotically thinking that life in Form Six would be honeymoon with nothing much to do, I decided to join in the fun and excitement by serving the Association as an Exco. And this is where everything begins...

Though I was told that Finsec is the THE hardest job in the Executive Committee (maybe after President and Vice), I think I am money-cautious and organized enough to handle the job. However, I soon found that asking for sponsorship is the toughest task ever. Imagine you sending emails and bombarding secretaries day after day, only to find out after around 10 callings or so, that the company has never thought of making any donations at all. Imagine the thrill and contentment when 1 out of 20 companies finally gave a rewarding reply. At the same time, imagine being continuously asked to procure more sponsorship – so that your colleagues could use more professional decorations or even higher-quality paper and ink.

Looking back, the past 3 months had been a real challenge and I must admit that a lot could have been better done. At this time of the year, when the most hectic term ever – the myriad of school duties, OSA activities and US applications, has passed; I hope that I can devote most of my time and energy to OSA so that the magic of this family could continue to burn!

In the mean time, add oil to Youth Summit 2008 and all the best to everyone!

NG, Joane (2131)
Public Relations Officer

吳嘉穎

Greetings OSArS! This is Joane Ng from Belilios Public School. OSA number: 2131. Time really flies. When I look back, the Annual General Meeting on 11th August, 2007 seems like years ago as these few months were like an amazing adventure which enriched my life in various facets.

Many people asked me how it feels to be an ExCo. De facto, being the Public Relations Officer of OSA is an once-in-a-lifetime experience. My dear ExCos have never failed to amaze me with their incredible abilities and unique creativity. I remember vividly every moment after the exciting election - millions of seemingly impossible tasks that nine of us accomplished, meetings that were filled with “broken gags” and many more.

After the successful mid-autumn service project, the Christmas ball 2007 is coming! Elaine, Horace and I are sure to bring an unforgettable Christmas to all of you! Meanwhile, Elaine, Valdice and I are working hard on International Convergence 2008. I sincerely look forward to the year ahead with your support!

Well, after looking forward to future, it is time to reminisce the past XD. The first time I heard of OSA dated back to 2003 when I was nominated by school to join "Dancing with Dragon 2004" and the professionalism of OSA deeply impressed me. Participating in Interflow Camp 2005, International Convergence 2005 and Youth Summit 2006 definitely broadened my horizons. Truly blessed, I was invited to join OSA in 2006 where I built up strong bonds with OSARs. With the concerted effort of OSARs, Interflow Camp 2006 and 2007, Annual Dinner and many more OSA activities have become part of the happiest memories in our lives.

I would also like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to advisors for giving us invaluable advice and sub-committee members and all OSARs for your tremendous support! I do have strong faith in the nine of us, together we shall bring another wonderful year for OSA and scale new heights!

LAM, David (2213)
Social Services Officer

Hello everyone! I am David Lam, a student at Diocesan Boys' School and it is my honour to serve as Social Services Officer of the 21th Executive Committee. I would like to further broaden my experience in OSA and continue the peerless spirit that has been holding us together for more than twenty years.

"Love your neighbour as you love yourself." (Mark 12.31) One way to show our love is to dedicate ourselves in serving those in need. Through actual participation and providing local teenagers with opportunities to reach out to the under-privileged, I hope they can behold the cardinal elements of serving and augment the understanding of the real world. Not only can we find happiness in giving, we also benefit from it by recognizing our social responsibilities and developing essential leadership qualities.

Aiming to live out the mission of the HKOSA, I look forward to cooperating with my fellow Executive Committee members and strive and make this year more memorable than ever. Also, may Hong Kong teenagers always participate actively in social services in the many years to come.

LEE, Ida (2217)
Internal Relations Officer

Nice to meet you all! This is Ida Lee, currently a 1st year student at Li Po Chun United World College of Hong Kong. It's my very much honour to serve the Association as Internal Relations Officer. A sincere thanks to advisors, senior OSAr, last year's Exco and my fellow 22nd OSAr for granting me this splendid opportunity to enrich my life.

Working with the project organizing committees in 07's summer has widened my horizon with their professionalism and efficiency. On top of that, what I get is an everlasting friendship. A sense of caring and considerate is bestowed by them which have deep-rooted in my heart since then. A strong bonding is built and thus I can proudly say OSA is my second family.

I truly would like to contribute to the association by strengthening the internal bonding between different OSAr in every corner in this world. Not only enhancing the relationship between new OSAr, but also trying to create a closer connection between old and new OSAr.

It's always difficult to achieve anything without friendly support. Shall we, my fellow OSA members and individuals, together create another flourishing year and pass on our OSA spirit hand in hand?

NI, Valdace (2224)
Administrative Officer

Greetings! This is Valdace Ni of St. Paul's Co-educational College. If you are stumped by the pronunciation of my name, don't worry - every 29 out of 30 people have the same problem, anyway! Well, the name is pronounced as VOR-dis.

I am delighted to serve the Hong Kong Outstanding Students' Association as the Administrative Officer this year. Being an OSAr is a wonderful experience that will last not a year or two, but a life time. OSA is a home to lots of serving hearts and thoughtful minds. OSA is where we make friends who are always there with us in life's gloom and glory. OSA is “Soiree Interstellaire” was a night full of surprises and dances. Participants immersed themselves in the joyful and romantic atmosphere of the ball and experienced a magnificent night of Christmas celebration. The Christmas Ball was held at Diocesan Boys’ School on 27th December 2007 and it provided a good opportunity for OSArS and Friends of OSA to reunite and strike up new acquaintances.

A dazzling white Christmas tree was placed in the middle of the hall and glamorous decorations were hanged up. Coloured lights stroked across the hall and the audio and visual effects produced were awesome. Below is the detailed description of the programme.

“Opening Dance”

After the MCs, Paloma and Ida, started the exciting night of celebration, our President, Stephanie, and Vice-President,

The opening dance

Horace came down from the stage and performed an elegant opening dance with the accompaniment of melodious music. During the first few minutes, participants watched attentively. Then a few couples began to dance, and more and more participants joined in. “Flower girls” (some OCs) walked around and a number of gentlemen bought flowers for their dance partners.

“Singing Performance”

After some time of dance, the first surprise for the participants emerged – captivating singing performance by Horace and Paloma. Horace sang the song “富士山下” while Paloma chose the song “電燈膽”. The atmosphere was great and fellow OSArS presented flowers to them.

“Mass Game”

There was another dancing session before the second surprise came – colourful balloons were thrown down the stage. In fact, some of these balloons had a small strip of paper inside. A message was written on the paper. Participants who grabbed hold of these balloons went up to the stage and read the message aloud to all. Some participants were fortunate to get a free OSA wristband, while some others had “important” tasks to do: to give a flower to an opposite sex or to lead the next dance. No matter it’s a gift or a task, participants who got the balloons were excited and happy.

“Dance Performance”

After the exciting mass game came another dance performance by OR Cynthia (2225) and her friend, Jennifer. They performed a pop dance under the playing of fast music and won the applause of all participants. After their performance, they invited the participants to dance together. How different the atmosphere was when compared to the elegant opening dance!

Couple game

“Couple Game”

Surprises followed closely one after the other throughout the whole night. Three pairs of couple were chosen to go up onto stage and played the “Big TV” game. The boys’ funny presentation of the words and the girls’ innovative guesses really entertained the audience. The pair of couple with the most number of correct guesses within the time limit won the game.

“Magic Performance”

The climax of the night was the magic performance by a guest magician, Mr. Ng Kai-wai who is a friend of OSA. His magic performance was extremely brilliant and everyone gazed at his magic hands. Under his control, flames suddenly appeared on stage and glasses of wine appeared from nowhere. He even succeeded to release his hands from a pair of locked handcuffs in no time. The audience were really surprised by his magic.

“Closing”

After a series of surprising entertainment programmes, the ball finally came to a perfect end we sang “回憶” and “We Wish You a Merry Christmas” to mark the end of the ball.

Conclusion

We hope that we have given all participants of the ball a sweet and unforgettable memory of Christmas 2007. The success of the ball is meaningful to all ExCos as it is our first external project of the year. We would like to express our gratitude to all OCs who have contributed a lot of their time and effort in helping us to prepare for the ball. Last but not least, we would like to thank all OSAs and OSA friends who came to the ball to support us. We hope to see you all in future OSA events!

-Mid-Autumn Service Project and Gathering-

Our first internal gathering of the year, the Mid Autumn Festival Gathering - Evocation, was held on 23rd September. The Mid Autumn Festival is significant for reunions of friends and families, and therefore we were extremely delighted to have members of the OSA family joining us on this warm and meaningful occasion.

The gathering began in the afternoon at the Hong Kong Playground Association Centre in Mongkok, where OSAs worked as volunteers to spend an enjoyable afternoon with around twenty children. First, we taught them how to make paper lanterns. The children were very active and pretty excited in decorating their own lanterns. Afterwards, we asked them to guess some interesting lantern riddles, while at the same time, enjoying delicious mooncakes together with them. They were very intelligent and got the answers of the riddles in a very short period of time. The last activity with the children was the game "Top of the world". After that, we presented the children with prizes according to the scores of their respective group. Before the service ended, all of us took some photos in order to keep this lovely memory of the day. We were all so satisfied because the children enjoyed the activities so much.

Following the service session, OSAs proceeded to a café near the service centre to have a good chat with each other. Everyone enjoyed the food and mooncakes, and most importantly, the marvellous time with one another. We talked about our school lives in the new academic year and lots of other random issues. All OSAs had a very good time at the café and even felt reluctant to leave!

To conclude, the 21st Executive Committee would like to thank all OSAs who came to support us on that day despite their busy duties, and we sincerely hope that you will continue to support us and the OSA family by showing up in the gatherings that are to come!

-Christmas Tram Party-

Christmas is a special festival to OSArS. It is a time when those who study abroad return to Hong Kong, allowing us to gather around again to recall the memory in OSA and to share our experiences with each other.

On the 20th of December, we had our second internal gathering party of the year – The Christmas Tram Party – Noel. We were glad that the chilly weather didn't deter OSArS from coming, and we all had a blissful evening on the deck of one of Hong Kong's antique transports. 25 OSArS came to the gathering to re-unite and to celebrate Christmas.

We started off from Sheung Wan and rambled down to Causeway Bay, then went back. During the ride, we had precious opportunities to enjoy the iridescent skyscrapers and the glittering sky which we often miss in our busy lives. Some of us found immense fun waving at passers-by and travellers in other vehicles.

Of course, the Executive Committee had tried hard to perfect the party. The tram was embellished with silvery and golden decorations to create a Christmas-like atmosphere. After all OSArS boarded, we played warm-up games, like give-guessing and Big TV. We tested whether the OSAs were familiar with the history of the organization. Little secrets regarding the 21st Executive Committee members were also dug up. Refreshments were provided in between, including sushi rolls, fishballs, jelly cubes, fruit punch and mini-sandwiches which won the applause from many OSArS. The climax came when all participants sang some Christmas songs. We called it a day by playing bingo and selling our new souvenirs.

We would once again like to thank all OSArS that participated in the event. The radiant smiles and plaudits given were important energizers to the 21st Executive Committee. No matter how parching and frustrating future tasks will be, we will continue to refine ourselves and give our best.

Pathway to Integrity

Integrity is such an indispensable personal quality that, for this year's Future Young Leaders' Forum, it was chosen as the theme of the program. Through different talks and activities, the importance of integrity was shown to participants. The 21st Executive Committee was proud to have participated in spreading the message to over 3000 students..

The Future Young Leaders' Forum 2007 proved to be a spectacular day for over one thousand and five hundred students, and participating OSArS. The Forum, already in its eighth year, organized by the Outstanding Young Persons' Association and co-organized by the Hong Kong Outstanding Students' Association, was held on 7th December, 2007 at the Queen Elizabeth Stadium. With "Pathway to Integrity" as the theme of this year, The Forum, aimed to inspire students to unleash their unlimited potentials and develop leadership skills, as well as to promote the importance of integrity to students. The day was filled with multifarious programmes ranging from heart-warming sharing sessions, thought-provoking talks and performances that demonstrated great talents.

The 21st Executive Committee, also had our chance to shine in the successful endeavour of performing the dance steps of our Association's song "Qing Miu" in front of an audience of more than one thousand and five hundred participants. After the enjoyable and meaningful performance, It was hoped that the underlying message of thriving for a better Hong Kong could be conveyed to the participants through the lyrics of "Qing Miu".

OSArS were also very much honoured to be granted the opportunity to exchange views on leadership, social issues, life experience and student development with the Financial Secretary Mr TSANG Chun-wah, John JP on the stage. The interflow of ideas was truly inspiring.

Special thanks must be given to our honorary advisor Ms LEUNG, Doreen for her support and guidance for the performance of “Qing Miu”. This year’s Future Young Leaders’ Forum marked another marvellous occasion for everyone to acquire leadership qualities and to learn the importance of integrity.

- RTHK Radio Programme -

On 29th of September, we were invited to take part in a radio program recording process. Our President and Vice President went to give their opinions on different aspects of the society.

We discussed with participating guests like LEE, Pang Fei and Legislative Councilor LAU, Patrick for more than two hours on controversial topics such as environmental protection, education reform, future competitiveness of Hong Kong, and EQ problem of Hong Kong teenagers. Participants in the radio program were given chances to ask questions and we were glad to have answered some of them.

The radio program, which lasted for an hour, was broadcasted on 11th November and 18th November. We were delighted to participate in the program to voice out our opinions on different social issues. This would be a wonderful experience to us.
